

PROTOCOL ON STUDENT EXCHANGE

between

SAINT-PETERSBURG UNIVERSITY, RUSSIAN FEDERATION

and

PEKING UNIVERSITY, PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Education «Saint-Petersburg State University» (hereinafter referred to as “Saint-Petersburg University/SPbU”), duly represented by its Vice-Rector for International Affairs Sergey Andryushin, acting on the basis of proxy dated 31.12.2019 № 28-21-506, on the one part,

and

Peking University (hereinafter referred to as “Peking University/PKU”), duly represented by its Vice President for International Relations Wang Bo, on the other part, hereinafter collectively referred to as Parties, agreed to continue their academic cooperation and have prepared to that effect the following Protocol on Student Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the “Protocol”).

§ 1

1.1. The Parties will conduct exchange of undergraduate and graduate students for non-degree studies in accordance with the rules and regulations set in this Protocol.

The Parties agree to set following terms and conditions for student exchange:

2.1. The total number of exchange students per one academic year from each Party shall not exceed 8 (eight) undergraduate or graduate students for study period of one term or 4 (four) for study period of one academic year. In the exceptional cases the exchange period can be prolonged for more than it is stipulated in this Protocol by mutual consent of the Parties. The Parties strive to distribute the candidates for exchanges evenly throughout the academic year and keep the balance of number of exchange students from each university annually.

2.2. The home university will be responsible for the initial selection of exchange students; however, the host university reserves the right to deny admission to any candidate not meeting its general admission criteria.

Admission of students to PhD programs is possible only in case of finding a scientific advisor at the host university.

2.3. Exchange students will be exempted from paying tuition fees to the host university, but shall pay tuition fees at the home university, if applicable. Exchange students have to pay all other compulsory fees as according to the rules and regulations of the host university. Exchange students shall be informed about all compulsory fees in advance.

2.4. Students participating in the exchange under the terms of this Protocol shall be provided:

2.4.1. at Peking University:

- A scholarship covering living costs as stipulated by PKU, in the amount equal to the University's scholarship for incoming exchange students.
- Free of charge accommodation.

2.4.2. At Saint-Petersburg University:

- Monthly scholarship in the amount equal to national scholarship for native students;
- Free of charge accommodation at the dormitories of SPbU.

All the expenses related to participation in the exchange in accordance with this Protocol, including visa related expenses, medical insurance expenses, travel expenses and any additional expenses connected to the participation in the exchange shall be covered by the exchange student, or by the home university, or by a third party where available.

2.5. Each host institution will ensure that students receive the necessary documents for visa purposes. It is the responsibility of the individual student to apply for a visa in time.

2.6. All the exchange students should have a medical insurance valid on the territory of the host country during the whole exchange period. Students are responsible to obtain adequate medical/health insurance coverage (including emergency medical evacuation, live insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance) to the satisfaction of the host university.

2.7. Students who participate in the exchange program will be awarded grades and credits in accordance with the academic policies and regulations of the host university. A Transcript of Records will be issued by the receiving institution no later than 1 (one) month after the end of the exchange period.

2.8. Exchange students shall follow the rules of the host university and the law of the host country. Any infringement of the given rules and laws can be subject to pre-term dismissal from the host university.

2.9. All the exchange students will be enrolled on an equivalent base and given the same academic privileges as the other students in the host university.

2.10. The Parties will assist exchange students in all practical and academic matters, especially concerning obtaining visa, accommodation, and academic integration.

3.1. The Parties can, by mutual written consent, introduce changes and additions to this Protocol in order to improve the effectiveness of cooperation.

3.2. Each Party shall not use names and logos of the other Party without its prior written consent, if not related directly to the performance of obligations under the present Protocol, except as provided by law.

3.3. This Protocol will come into effect from the date of signing and will remain in force for 5 (five) years until 31.12.2025, but may be renewed by mutual written consent/unless either party terminates it by giving the other six months prior written notice. In the event of termination, any exchanges already underway shall be allowed to be completed.

3.4. Should any dispute, disagreement or claim arise between the Parties in concern of this Protocol, the Parties shall try to settle them by negotiations.

3.5 At Peking University, the management of the exchange will be the responsibility of the Office of International Relations, and at Saint-Petersburg University it will be the responsibility of the International Academic Cooperation Department.
